CORE VALUES

WEEP Welfare Society is a value driven organization. It strongly believes that values are the foundations on which an organization is built and these represent the core beliefs and convictions of an organization. In fact, they describe what the organization stands for. Values establish moral and ethical priorities, which serve to guide all organizational activities. The organizational principles, standards and qualities are also reflected through its practicing values.

WEEP ORGANOGRAM

OUR PROGRAMS

➤ Poverty reduction:

Poverty is the main non-stability in most of the across the nation. The main poverty nowadays is unemployment, physical family situations, distance etc. all these hurdles in today's the human effortless. The are feared to merge into the or even come to the city limits. The fear and improper guidance leads them to stick into their own limits where even now we can find the people living in forest, caves and even in interior part of the villages.

As the citizens of the same nation everyone has equal right to freedom, justice, education etc. in order to make the downtrodden and destitute people to strive hard to handle their own life situation we need to develop state where they would equip themselves for a balanced life.

Weep through the process of waste management has developed criterion to give self-employment for the downtrodden and vulnerable. This idea creates the idea of re-cycling and intervenes into the state of welcoming new life

➤ Women Empowerment:

Women plays a major role in Indian Population, in today's realm unlike olden days there are no situation of women sitting inside the home and doing only household things. The situation is been changing that women plays major role in the work culture. Even though we find women in most of our work areas but that is only 20% approximately.

Women in developing nations are legally restricted from their land on the sole basis of gender. Having a right to their land gives women a sort of bargaining power that they wouldn't normally have; in turn, they gain the ability to assert themselves in various aspects of their life, both in and outside of the home. Another way to provide women empowerment is to allocate responsibilities to them that normally belong to men.

When women have economic empowerment, it is a way for others to see them as equal members of society. Through this, they achieve more self-respect and confidence by their contributions to their communities. Simply including women as a part of a community can have sweeping positive effects.

➤ Child Education:

The development of the society depends on the value of education. In today's situation education plays an important role in the developmental arena of life. Education increases the value of life, programs our mind, help's in describing our future. In such competitive world, it is must for all to have good education. The importance of higher education has become increased in getting good job and position.

Proper education creates lots of ways to go ahead in the future. It makes us strong mentally, socially and intellectually by increasing our knowledge level, technical skills and good position in the job. Each and every kid has their own dream of doing something different in the life. But many a times without understanding the value of education, children's are not allowed to go to school because of poverty, lack of knowledge etc.

Weep in its target area finds out such children's to give them free education

➤ Health Education

Health education also teaches about the emotional and mental health of the student. A healthy person is the happiest person in the world. A healthy person can enjoy life fully. He can carry out his duties in a responsible manner. He is an asset to the family, the society and to the entire nation. He is always full of energy. He lives a long and happy life.

The children of primary classes enjoyed colouring pictures of national animals of the world, dressed up as animals belonging to various habitats and made Scrap files using waste materials. Primary students presented “Trash N Show” in which they walked on the ramp wearing dresses made of waste materials like old magazines, newspapers, jute, tetra packs and wrappers.

Senior students made pamphlets on carpooling and slogans on Environment protection and distributed these in the neighbourhood & community centres. A stimulating debate on the topic “we are passing concrete & plastics to our future” saw students discussing the menace of global warming and toxic materials. E-waste disposal and management methods were presented as power point presentation. Drug abuse and rehabilitation was personally addressed by students with visit to a rehabilitation centre followed by a debate on drug liberalization and poster making.

An effort was made to reaffirm moral and ethical response to seek cooperation between science and human implementation of comfort in service of the larger Earth Community.

TEACHER'S DAY

Date: 05 September 2015

Target groups: Children's, Teachers, Primary School

Goal: To make the group understand the value of education.
To master their strength in their thinking capacity

Progress: "Teachers are the torch bearers of the Gen-next"

Teachers play a major role in making their students responsible citizens of tomorrow and good human beings. It is impossible to imagine our lives without teachers. They are the cornerstone of our future. We can never thank teachers enough for their immense contribution in a student's life. Teacher's Day is celebrated to show our acknowledgement and recognition of the hard work put in by our teachers towards our development. The Programme included dance, skit and song performed by the students.

Students always look forward to Teacher's Day with a lot of anticipation, for the sheer spirit of the occasion. Acting as teachers, they get a fair idea of the responsibility, so efficiently handled by their teachers. It requires a lot of hard work and dedication to be a good teacher and earn the affection of students at the same time. Teachers, on this day, are reminded of their school days and feel nostalgic. All in all, it was celebration mode for everyone!

Through this program the kids enjoyed their moments as a teacher and understand what a teacher does in his/her responsibility. We also taught them the value education which helps them to play a key role for the betterment of the society. The program itself concentrated on the building their basic foundation also teaching their basic rights.

GANDHI JAYANTHI

Date : 02 October 2015

Target Groups: Children's, Teachers, Primary School

Goal : To help them know the Father of our nation

To know about the struggles and difficulties for our country

To make them stand and work for the welfare of the nation

Going a step forward in helping the children understand all about the freedom struggle and the role of Mahatma Gandhi in helping us win our independence non-violently, the children were shown the movie Gandhi.

Thus the children of WEEP were given a deep insight into the life and times of Mahatma Gandhi and encouraged to think about the sacrifice of our freedom fighters, analyse the importance and understand the value of freedom, through the day's activities.

Children's were taught about Gandhi Ji through, the feature film and class presentations, the pre-primary section commemorated the day by introducing the tiny tots to Gandhi ji. This was followed by a PPT presentation to highlight the values and the ethics he strived to inculcate in the society.

Children were given an account of how he led our nation in the fight for freedom and sacrificed his life for social equality. The teachers told the children about the dandi march and about the swadeshi movement, about wearing homespun cotton clothes, and about how he stressed on leading a simple but noble life.

Not only this, the children were shown Gandhi's photographs, his spectacles, his walking stick and the spinning wheel or the charkha. The tiny tots came dressed in khadi and cotton kurta pyjamas as a mark of Bapu and the nation. The children were given a taste of cooperation and a sense of involvement when they enacted the Dandi March conducted within the school campus.

AWARENESS PROGRAM

Date: 7. November.15

Target Groups: Village People

Goal : To give proper Health Education

To create Awareness about the spreading diseases and Cleanliness

Rural Healthcare is one of the biggest challenges that India is facing today. High mortality rates are subjected to poor health care facilities in the rural areas of India. More than 70% of India's population is living under the roof of rural setup.

These poorly established houses experience lack of proper supply of water and electricity. They manage to get a little water from far away distant places in order to proceed with their daily activities.

Considering the entire picture, WEEP took the initiative of introducing rural India to health awareness programme. With the objective to, fill the gaps in implementation of various policies and programs failed to meet the goals of a healthy rural India. It aims to educate rural India and make them aware of how to take proper care of their health. This programme is focused towards addressing issues of personal health care, vaccination, hygiene, and illness prevention.

Weep operates with the commitment to health for all. Organizing various health camps at regular intervals are targeted towards providing health solutions. These health camps impart health education and sensitize the community on preventive and promote health grounds. These camps are aimed at generating awareness, diagnosis and treatment of numerous health hazards. Specialized health camps are organized for Eye care, TB, Malaria, Anaemia, Dengue, and Diarrheic, Worm infestation, Skin infections and STD/HIV diseases.

For all these, people are encouraged to incorporate healthy habits and take various preventive measures. In addition, people are also spurred to boost up their daily nutrition intake. They are also given information on how to integrate and maintain hygiene in their lifestyle. Apart from that, special attention is given to women's reproductive health. Women health care camps also foster women to seek medical aid for their reproductive health and well-being. Counselling couples, educating adolescent girls and other informative activities too are undertaken. WEEP NGO takes a step forward in rehabilitating child beggars ... relentlessly working towards the ultimate goal of eradicating child beggars Our NGO is working directly with children to promote the welfare of the children and to ... children, this day is being celebrated as children's day. It is not just a day to let the future generation have its say. It is a day to remember a leader who, in his quiet but determined way laid the foundation to convert a nascent nation into a world power.

Children took active part in celebrations. Competitions were held. Some of them won prizes. Parents are also very happy to see their children participating in the celebration and are thankful to you for your generous support.

Children's day brought streams of happiness and loads of fun to enhance them in the wider range of development. Innovative ideas and crafty play brought a sense of creativity for a better progress. Skill development makes a child develop his/her notion see the society in a different view. The attributes and the qualities of the children are developed only at the primary level where they learn the basic criteria's of life. The limitation itself in the human growth is broken only through the development portion in the physical and scientifically level.

In this day children's were taught to go through the developmental process in knowing and understanding the life situations.

CHRISTMAS DAY

Date: 25 December 2015

Target groups: Under Poverty Line.

Goal: To make them innovative for a better future
To give them good exposure in the changing life situations
To celebrate the day for the Christmas's.

Christmas is a time of celebration, hope and laughter. Perhaps the only time when children all over the world wake up bright and early with a gleam in their eyes and a smile on their lips, ready to rip open and enjoy their crisply wrapped presents. The sad truth, however, is that there are millions of children around the world who are deprived of this experience, not because they've been naughty, but because they come from underprivileged backgrounds and cannot afford to celebrate Christmas.

Students at weep celebrated the spirit of Christmas with Joy and Cheer. The festivities included Christmas carols singing and delicious holiday treats, we also had Santa Claus joined the celebrations and distributed Gifts to students. Children and their parents had a great time participating in the games and activities and taking photos with Santa. All had a great time!

The Christmas Celebrations at WEEP commenced on the evening of 24th December, Christmas Eve. It was heart-warming to see thousands of eyes riveted in reverence on. All listened to their expressions of devotion and yearning. At the end of the program, gifts were given and all were blessed.

Needless to say, both the children and the volunteers enjoyed themselves on the day of the event, with the delegation from Gracious Chocolates expressly mentioning their happiness for being associated with WEEP and bringing joy and laughter to the underprivileged kids on Christmas.

Conclusion

Weep through its objective aspires to form itself a self-funding organization to motivate its members in focusing on the life changing situations. The process itself is designed to live in all arena of life so that the temporary situations may not cause bigger problems. In reaching the so called downtrodden, under-privileged, below poverty people of the selected states; WEEP understands the culture and life of the people in order to frame a developmental agenda to work with.

The programs, Awareness Campaigns, Health Checkups, Counseling, paves the way especially for women and children to face the modern India and to step into the stones of success. Every year such kinds of programs are done and it creates a viable way for many.
